Two US Planes Lost In Raids On Red Depots

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — American warplanes continued their pounding of targets in North Viet Nam, the U.S. Military Command reported today, but two planes were lost.

On the ground, South Vietnamese government troops launched a new drive against Viet Cong guerrillas only three miles from Saigon after an upsurge of terrorist attacks on the fringes of the capital.

Elsewhere only scattered ground fighting was reported.

Two MIGs made a pass at two Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs while the U.S. jets were bombing the Nguyen Khe oil storage area only 10 miles north of Hanoi. A U.S. spokesman said neither side fired and the opponents broke contact.

Fourteen minutes later, another MIG17 made a firing pass at the lead plane of a flight of Thunderchiefs that was hitting the same oil dump.

The MIG broke off, the U.S. spokesman said, when he was fired on by the wingman of the attacked Thunderchief. Neither the U.S. planes nor the MIG were hit, the spokesman said.

During the raids a Thunderchief went down from unknown causes 85 miles west of Hanoi. Both crew members were listed as missing in action.

The U.S. spokesman also reported an F8 Crusader jet from the aircraft carrier USS Oriskany was shot down by Communist fire 15 miles northeast of Vinh on the coast of North Viet Nam. The pilot bailed out over the sea and was picked up by an American rescue helicopter.

The two losses raised to 342 the number of American planes downed in the North since the air strikes against North Viet Nam began two years ago.

The U.S. Military Command also announced today that 101 American servicemen were killed in the fighting in Viet Nam last week, an increase of 30 over the previous week's toll. Another 593 were listed in action and 11 were listed as missing or captured.

Michigan Pilot Leads Raid On Red Infiltrators

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. and South Vietnamese fighter-bomber pilots killed 103 Viet Cong and Communist infiltrators during air attacks 90 miles from Saigon Wednesday.

Two flights of three U.S. Air Force F100 Supersabers initiated the attacks after U.S. special forces and Vietnamese irregulars made contact with an enemy force.

Capt. Roger E. Schemenaur, 31, of Bangor, Mich., led the first flight in bombing and strafing the area for 20 minutes.

A nine-vote victory for county chairman Joseph Rarnham over Sen. Robert Huber, R-Royal Oak, in a contest for convention chairman seemed to indicate greater strength for the conservatives. Rarnham is considered a party-line moderate. Huber is a professed conservative.

Romney's attack on the right wing was greeted with loud applause. Three times, the audience rose to its feet during his heated, off-the-cuff speech.

Only a few catcalls were shouted from the audience in the nearly full, 1,000-seat auditorium at Southfield High School.

"I have the highest respect for any genuine conservative," Romney said. "I believe I am a conservative."

"There is no basic difference between genuine conservatism and true liberalism," Romney added. "A true conservative solves problems by using proven experience and proven principles. A genuine liberal believes that the individual is more important than the group and places the individual first."

The UAW has requested reopening to give skilled tradesmen an immediate pay hike and has demanded an answer by Monday from General Motors Corp., Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. Current contracts still have a year to run.

Industry sources had indicated the answer would be "no," even before production workers asked inclusion. They expressed fear of just such a demand from the Big Three's 700,000 semiskilled and unskilled.

The production worker request came from Ford Local 600, the UAW's largest with 30,000 production and 10,000 skilled members. Jointly, all production unit chairmen dispatched a letter to UAW President Walter P. Reuther, asking inclusion in any reopening and quoting him as having told many union conventions:

"Let us work together. Let us build together. Let us fight together. With teamwork in the leadership and solidarity in our ranks, we will win together."

Skilled tradesmen, outnumbered more than three to one in UAW ranks, stepped up pressure meanwhile Wednesday in their reopening campaign.

One ambassador reported there was little serious conversation during the cruise. He said Johnson was cheerful, relaxed and full of stories and jokes.

Two color films were shown, one of the President's visit to Mexico City in 1963 and the other of his Texas ranch. A buffet of shrimp, rice, lamb and ice cream was served.

Seven Lawyers Stalk Out On House Panel

Senate Votes Power To Call Up Reservists

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, overriding objections from the White House and the Pentagon, has given President Johnson standby authority to call up thousands of reservists for possible active duty in Viet Nam.

Voting 66-21 Wednesday to tie the provision to the pending $58.2-billion annual defense money bill, the Senate heeded arguments that many draft-age youths were joining the Army Reserve and National Guard to avoid duty in the Southeast Asian war.

"We can't permit the six-month reserve training program to become an umbrella to avoid active service," declared Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., a former secretary of the Air Force.

Wednesday's vote amounted to a hard-fought victory for Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., its ranking Republican.

President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara have rejected previous proposals for mobilizing any of the citizen-soldier units of the armed services.

The Russell-Saltonstall proposal specifically would authorize active-duty service for individual reservists of up to 24 consecutive months, less any time previously served on active training duty.

It could apply to thousands of reservists and National Guardsmen who volunteered to take a few months' training duty with the active or regular forces and then served additional years in the Reserve or Guard.

However, the amendment would exempt reservists or guardsmen who served in World War II, the Korean War or on active duty for more than two years.

Kroll Siamese Twins Die Today

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (AP) — Siamese twin girls born Sunday died today apparently from respiratory difficulties, Bryn Mawr Hospital announced.

The hospital said no attempt was made to separate the babies, joined at the chest and abdomen, since they died simultaneously.

Selection of the Fereny running mate is the major job of the convention, which meets Saturday morning after district caucuses Friday night — and possibly some pre-convention maneuvering Thursday night.

Action on a new state chairman to succeed the resigning Fereny will apparently be deferred until next winter.

The Democrats' other major statewide candidates, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley and Secretary of State James Hare, should have no trouble winning renomination. Fereny was nominated without opposition at the Aug. 2 primary election.

Dr. Leon Fill of Huntington Woods and Donald Thurber of Grosse Pointe are expected to be renominated to the board of education, leaving other possible contests only for some seats on university boards of control.

The convention will also write a platform for the November campaign.

Fereny remains an underdog to Republican Gov. George Romney, another factor adding to the difficulty in finding a nominee.

Former State Treasurer Sanford Brown and ex-Insurance Commissioner Sherwood Colburn, for example, are regarded as possible but not enthusiastic candidates.

Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh, who campaigned hard against Williams for the Senate nomination, will introduce Williams and turn his fire on Republican Sen. Robert Griffin.

The whirlwind journey beginning Friday will take the President into New York state, Rhode Island, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine.

He and Prime Minister Lester Pearson of Canada will meet Sunday to discuss international questions.

Among these, Pearson told a news conference Wednesday in Ottawa, presumably he will be Viet Nam. "I suspect that the war might come up," the prime minister said, adding that details of the meeting are incomplete.

The scene of this meeting will be Roosevelt Campobello International Park on Campobello Island, New Brunswick, Canada. The park was established by the United States and Canada in honor of Franklin D. Roosevelt, who had a summer home there.

In New York, he will be appearing in the home districts of three freshman Democrats who upset Republicans in 1964. Syracuse is in Rep. J. Michael Hunsley's 34th District; at Buffalo Johnson could help Rep. Richard D. McCarthy, while Ellenville is the hometown of Rep. Joseph Y. Resnick.

In Rhode Island, Democratic Sen. Claiborne Pell is up for reelection. In an effort to beat Republican Gov. John H. Chafee, Democrats are putting up Mayor Horace Hobbs of Warwick.

In Maine, Republican Gov. John H. Reed is seeking reelection. Democrats have nominated Kenneth M. Curtis, secretary of state, who is 35.

Rep. R. Ichord Sees Real Need Of Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House committee investigating anti-Viet Nam war groups faces a major decision involving witnesses today following the walk-out of seven lawyers in another stormy session.

The lawyers, representing a dozen subpoenaed witnesses, marched from Wednesday's hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities in protest of the forced expulsion of another attorney.

The committee must decide whether to dismiss the witnesses if they fail to get new lawyers by a noon EDT deadline today.

If the witnesses are dismissed, the committee could start questioning a number of people waiting to testify on the need for legislation to curb anti-war activities.

More than three dozen persons have been arrested during two days of hearings — 19 of them Wednesday — most for shouting, hissing and cheering during the tumultuous sessions in the sprawling hearing room.

Has Seen Enough

"I've seen enough," said Rep. Richard Ichord, D-Mo., a committee member, after several of the subpoenaed witnesses tried to make speeches denouncing the committee and the Viet Nam War while being directed by acting Chairman Joe R. Pool, D-Tex., to get new lawyers.

Ichord said the hearings had shown "a very serious need for this legislation."

Bills sponsored by Pool and other committee members would slap maximum $20,000 fines and 20-year prison sentences on Americans who block shipment of U.S. men and materials to Viet Nam, or who help the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong.

The central figure in Wednesday's tumult, which completely overshadowed testimony taken by the committee, was Arthur A. Kinoy, a 5-foot-2, middle-aged attorney and Rutgers University law professor.

Kinoy has been the chief counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union which is representing two witnesses in a suit challenging the constitutional authority for the committee's hearings.

Hearing Delayed

That suit is before a three-judge federal court. However, the court delayed indefinitely a hearing scheduled Wednesday to give the judges more time to study legal briefs.

Phillip A. McCombs, 22, a recent Yale University graduate from Ogdensburg, N.Y., was testifying about his undercover work in antiwar groups on assignment from William F. Buckley's conservative magazine, National Review, when a committee counsel asked him about the activities of Walter D. Teague III.

Attorney William M. Kunstler sprang to his feet and demanded that the testimony be taken in secret or that he, as Teague's attorney, be permitted to cross-examine McCombs. When Pool rejected the request, Kinoy leaped up to join the legal objection.

"Now sit down," Pool shouted. "You're not going to disrupt these hearings. We ruled on this yesterday."

Kinoy continued to argue, and Pool again told him to sit down as three federal marshals moved in.

"Take your hands off this man, a member of the bar," cried Kunstler as the marshals seized Kinoy and started to drag him toward the door.

Lieut. Governor Candidates Shy

LANSING (AP)—If you'd like to run for lieutenant governor, drop by the Democratic State Convention this weekend in Grand Rapids—there may be an opening.

Two days in advance of the nomination, there is no standout candidate and little apparent enthusiasm about or from some of the names being mentioned as a running mate for gubernatorial candidate Zolton Fereny.

Selection of the Fereny running mate is the major job of the convention, which meets Saturday morning after district caucuses Friday night — and possibly some pre-convention maneuvering Thursday night.

Action on a new state chairman to succeed the resigning Fereny will apparently be deferred until next winter.

Delta GOP Convention Says

Campaign Hits Inflation

Delta County Republicans in convention at the Sherman Hotel on Wednesday night named as delegates to the Michigan State Convention at Detroit Aug. 26-27: John Walbridge, Miss Mary Woodard, Mrs. Rene Labre, Harold Anderson, all of Escanaba; Mrs. Barbara Nebel of Brampton Township and Mrs. Helen Ackerman of Gladstone.

The alternate delegates are: Mrs. John Walbridge, Escanaba; James Anderson, Bark River; Harold Gustafson, Ensign; Arthur Neiman, Robert Hansley and Roy Jensen of Escanaba.

Arthur Neiman, county chairman, was convention chairman. Mrs. Nebel was secretary and Alcott Erickson was vice chairman.

Resolutions adopted by the convention:

1. Endorsed Gov. George Romney and Lieut. Gov. William Milliken for "new and dynamic stability in the State . . . outstanding administration . . . continued prosperity and well-being of all the people."

2. Endorsed U.S. Senator Robert P. Griffin for election "after more than 9 years of distinguished, outstanding service to Michigan in Congress. Senator Griffin has won the support of most of Michigan's news media because of his knowledge of the purpose and function of Congress and has already captured the respect and admiration of his colleagues in the Senate, as he did in the House."

Inflation Cited

3. Charged the Johnson-Humphrey Democratic Administration "has failed to protect the people of Michigan and the nation from a steady increase in the cost of living and refused to restrain itself in unnecessary spending of taxpayers' money. Because the overwhelming Democratic majority in Congress has blindly supported the Johnson-Humphrey Administration in its excesses and because absence of a responsible Republican majority constitutes a threat to our system of checks and balances in federal government, the voters can contribute heavily to the national welfare by electing Republicans to Congress and we endorse Philip Ruppe for election."

4. Found that Romney-Milliken Republican Administration in Lansing "has for almost two years found itself pitted against an overwhelming Democratic majority in both chambers of the Legislature and has despite these odds achieved more good for the people than any administration in recent history and the election of a Republican majority would end Democratic obstructionism and other tactics devised to disgrace the Romney-Milliken image, so we unanimously endorse Thomas Schweigert for reelection to the Michigan State Senate from the 37th District and the election of Charles Varnum to the House of Representatives from the 107th District."

For KO Of Tolls

5. Supported the special "Commission on Crime, Delinquency and Criminal Administration created by Governor Romney" and urged citizen participation in curbing crime and delinquency.

6. Supported Governor Romney's efforts to bring greater traffic safety in Michigan and pledged "to inform the people of Delta County on the Democrats' refusal to overcome this threat."

7. Asked the Michigan Republican Convention to endorse legislation for reduction of the Mackinac Bridge tolls "and exploration of all channels for complete elimination of the tolls."

Neiman told the convention "The public should be mindful that the cost of campaigning has gone up and that we need greater public participation in the giving of money to the local Republican Committee so it can meet its obligations in financing the campaigns of the candidates."

"In my opinion we have one of the best states of candidates, both on local and state levels, that the Republican party has ever come up with and they need this kind of support from the public."

Hekhuis Joining Education Dept.

MARQUETTE — Clair M. Hekhuis, secretary to the Board of Control and administrative aide at Northern Michigan University for nine years, has resigned to accept the position of director of information services for the State Department of Public Instruction, Lansing.

Hekhuis came to Northern from Lansing in 1957 as director of information services. Working closely with President Edgar L. Harden, he developed Northern's first information-public relations program, later became assistant to the president, and in 1964 was appointed secretary to the university's first Board of Control.

Dr. Harden said "Clair Hekhuis has been a source of strength to Northern and me since he arrived early in this administration. We regret losing this fine family, both personally and professionally, but we wish them well in their new responsibilities."

"Working at Northern under the leadership of President Harden has been a great and memorable experience," Hekhuis said. "We regret leaving our many friends at Northern, in the Marquette community and in the Upper Peninsula, but we look forward to the new opportunity of working with Dr. Ira Polley and the State Department of Public Instruction."

A newspaperman in Michigan and Minnesota for six years, Hekhuis managed capital bureaus in both states for United Press International. He was bureau manager and chief capital correspondent for UPI in Lansing from 1954 to 1956 and headed the Minnesota capital bureau in St. Paul from 1952 to 1954, after two years

DR. WALTER R. Hibbard Jr., director of the U.S. Bureau of Mines, will deliver the commencement address Aug. 24 at Michigan Tech's 5th summer commencement. The university will confer 104 baccalaureate and graduate degrees on 103 candidates and an honorary Doctor of Laws degree will be conferred on Dr. Hibbard in the Houghton rites.

Primary Losers Sue GOP Brass

DETROIT (AP)—Four losers in the GOP primary election Aug. 2 have filed a suit against Republican State Chairman Elly Peterson and 13 other party leaders.

The plaintiffs, Mrs. Mary Rice, John Schaeffer, George Jacquiliari and Ken McGuire, charged that party funds were illegally used to defeat party conservatives running against moderates who had GOP backing.

Mrs. Rice ran for the state Senate nomination from Oakland County's 15th District. The others ran for precinct delegate posts.

The suit asks the Wayne County Circuit Court to compel Mrs. Peterson and other officials to account for money spent in the primary campaign and to reimburse the party for any funds used to defeat Republican candidates.

Huge Program Envisioned

Tourism Breakthrough Urged

By JEAN WORTH

Michigan's state government spent $788,000 this year on promotion of the tourist industry. It will spend $885,000 next year.

This is much more than it spent only a few years ago, but much less than the $4.6 million expenditure proposed to the state to stimulate its tourism by the Michigan Committee on Education for the Hospitality Industry in its "Campaign '68."

Professor Henry Barbour, director of the School of Hotel and Restaurant and Institutional Management at Michigan State University told the Upper Michigan Tourist Association Advisory Committee about the project at its recent meeting at the Northwoods at Marquette.

The basic concept of the project is to expand the role of the State Tourist Council so that it will become more than a sales organization which "doesn't check with the warehouse" to see the quality of service rendered to the customers it attracts. It aims to develop investment in tourism facilities and to improve such facilities.

Wide Base

The committee of 43 members is composed of representatives of state associations representing restaurants, resorts, hotels and motels, food services, airlines, the Michigan Tourist Council and similar groups. Only two of its members are from education, the rest are from commercial enterprises.

The Michigan State Tourist Council is now part of the Michigan Department of Conservation. Campaign '68 would make it the 21st department of State Government, borrowing suitable functions from the Departments of Commerce, Highways, Conservation and others.

Major aims are:

1. To amend Public Act 106 creating the MSTC to authorize the Council to do more than advertise and promote tourism.
2. Budget $4,861,000 spending, mostly for advertising and promotion in a broad-based program of activities probably including publication of a state magazine, and operating offices in out-of-state metropolises which provide the bulk of Michigan's recreational visitors.

Computer Service

3. Make a $95,000 market study and report with data on tourism and forecasts.

4. Tourist industry Extension services to cost $500,000.

5. Consultative legislative and federal government liaison services, $12,000.

6. Biggest single expenditure would be $2 million a year for three years for "Advisor", a computerized system of information for visitors. The computer would be in Lansing and the state would be zoned to supply information for every hospitality function.

Tourist entering the state at Benton Harbor could find out all the Indian burial grounds on their route, if that were their interest, available accommodations, etc. No state now has such a service.

Regional Centers

The information would come from centers throughout the state, not only on its borders, and there would be 8 such information centers in the Upper Peninsula. The centers would be concerned with serving tourists in season and with carrying out a program of tourism development and continuing education in the Extension program the rest of the year.

7. Activity would be on a regional basis and for establishing the regional centers $330,000 would be budgeted.

Professor Barbour contrasted the proposed $4.6 million cost of this program with the $6.4 million Florida spends on tourism advertising, and which has made July and August almost as big tourist months in Florida as December and January. Ontario spends $2.2 million.

New State Tax
"We are talking of state funds," said Professor Barbour, "to be spent by the Tourist Council, or by the universities under contract to the Council."

A use tax is among the proposals for financing. In the past the industry has been taxed but received no direct benefit from its taxes as is here proposed.

Campaign '68 hopes to have a law embodying its program ready for the Legislature this fall.

Zambia And U.S. Sign Investment Accord Tuesday

LUSAKA, Zambia (AP)—The U. S. Agency for International Development and the Zambian Foreign Ministry signed an investment agreement Tuesday.

Authoritative sources said Washington will guarantee American investment in this Central African nation under terms of the agreement.

Apart from American Metal Climax's 46 per cent holding in one of Zambia's two multi-million-dollar copper-producing groups, the Roan Selection Trust, U. S. investment in Zambia is small.

It is believed here the agreement will speed up Pan American Airways' investment in two $3 million dollar luxury hotels proposed for Victoria Falls and Lusaka.

It looks like a regular frank, right?

Wrong, it's new.

The entire inside is a secret compartment packed with a special new flavor.

The agents at Swift are never happy. We are constantly working to improve that American Institution: the Frankfurter. So when we come up with a new improvement, we're not the kind to keep it a secret. We believe this new improved frank is the best, but maybe we're biased, after all we don't eat any other frank.

So we went to work again, running a very thorough taste-test in our new Research Center. An overwhelming majority chose Swift's Premium new improved Franks over all other leading brands—even our own best-seller.

They liked it because it's the plumpiest, juiciest, firmest, meatiest frank and it comes in either 8 or 10 to the pound packages.

But... we didn't test everyone. So now we're running this ad with a coupon worth 7¢ off the regular price so we can prove to you—and ourselves—that Swift's Premium has the tastiest frank in town, no matter what you load 'em up with.

That Season Nears

The "hand me down my fishing tackle" boys will soon be wiping the dust from their guns. Frans Kuula of Rock will be counting the deer in his apple orchard and calculating whether there are more or fewer than last year. And hunt licenses will be on sale.

The year has been one in which the state did not move ahead strongly in any radical changes in game management. The Conservation Commission became more conservative and responsive to critics and created advisory committees to counsel it on game management. The committees were briefed by Conservation Department specialists and made field trips to see conditions in the deer country and then they supported the recommendations of the professional game managers for the most part.

The Michigan United Conservation Clubs were sharply critical of this ploy of the Conservation Commission. The MUCC journal said "The Commission was responsible for creating a 280-man Citizens Advisory Committee on Deer to take pressure off the Commission and the Legislature and for no other reason. At the time it was done the Commission stressed that the citizen committee was merely 'advisory' but this same citizen group has now set the 1966 deer seasons over the objections of the Conservation Department's Game Division."

"The Conservation Department has been put into such a corner by the Commission that they must ignore the fact that 84 per cent of Michigan residents surveyed think the Conservation Department should be allowed to continue to manage the state's game and fish resources. They must ignore this and turn over deer management to an untrained, though well-meaning citizen group."

"The Commission has been called 'gutless' by MUCC for abdicating their responsibilities. They could prove that they have guts by thanking the citizens committee for their work and sincerity and then eliminating the committee as no longer needed."

At issue is the Legislature's grant of discretionary authority to the Conservation Commission and Conservation Department to manage the state's wildlife. The Legislature is the state's legal custodian of wildlife, but, practically, this is a complex job for specialists and the Legislature lacks the specialized knowledge needed. Critics of game policy, however, go direct to the Legislature and it listens and acts. Often, it seems to us, it acts without determining whether the criticism is justified or widespread; as though any hunter complaint should have remedy.

The Michigan State Chamber of Commerce says that 10 years ago any suggestion to grant the Conservation Department authority to set seasons and bag limits and to manage all of our wildlife resources would have been laughed at.

"Today it's no laughing matter. The pressures on fish and wildlife are building up to a point that is now serious business. Population is taxing the resources to the limit. Apparently the time has come to make a decision as to whether or not we can afford the luxury of the time that the legislative processes take. We must determine whether we are going to place full faith in our trained and experienced biologists, or to wait for the ponderous wheels of legislation to grind out an answer that will be of no use after a crisis has passed."

"Only one state—Missouri—provides complete discretionary authority to its Conservation Department, including finance. Michigan only provides for reducing bag limits and season, with no provisions for changing seasons substantially, or of increasing bag limits. The antlerless deer seasons are subject to legislative change every year through committee hearings."

"It will soon be 16 years since the first antlerless deer season was held in Michigan in 1951. We still have a big herd of deer and thousands of hunters have taken deer regularly every season. Countless legislative investigations have brought realization that the biologists were right in their recommendations and only slightly wrong in numbers and degrees."

"But each year we go through the whole process of convincing legislators that the program is still sound. All that time is wasted each year in arguing about a program that has proven an example to the rest of the deer states."

Education, like the mills of the gods, grinds exceedingly slow.

Great Leap Backward

The Pekinologists would like very much to know just what's going on in Red China. It's doubtful if even the Chinese themselves will know what really happened until the current "cultural revolution" has run its course and the long-range effects begin to come home.

What's going on in China is far more than an ordinary, run-of-the-mill surge of the Communist hierarchy. The entire educational system of the country is being reorganized.

Scholarship is out and utter dedication to the truths of communism and the teachings of Mao Tse-tung is in. The purpose of education is no longer to be the training of skills but the fighting of the class struggle. Students will henceforth be admitted not on the basis of their abilities but on the basis of their ideological purity.

It is all being done at the demand of the masses, proclaims "The People's Daily," the official organ of the regime. According to a petition supposedly presented to the government by high school students in Peking, the present educational system "induced many young people to bury themselves in books in preparation for going to college, instead of studying for the revolution."

China seems deliberately to have launched a "great leap backward" into a new dark age of the mind which, if successful, could indefinitely delay her entrance into the modern world community of nations.

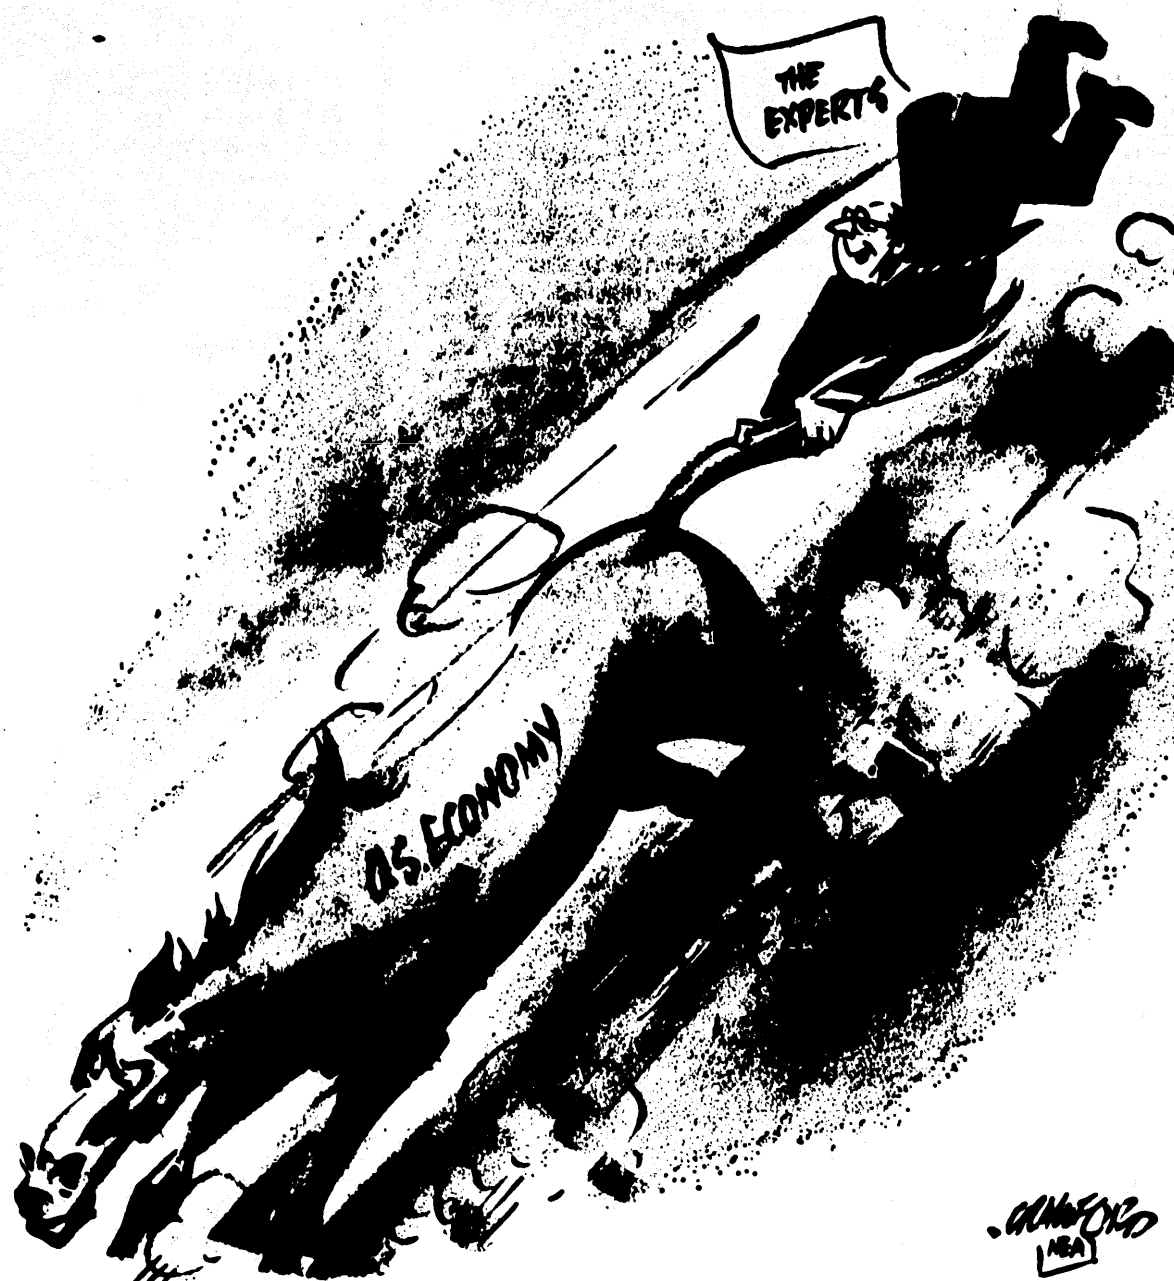

Blaze Destroys Freeway Opens Petoskey Laundry

PETOSKEY (AP) — A pre-dawn fire Wednesday destroyed the Hooker Laundry and Dry Cleaning plant here and interrupted electric power supplies to about one-third of the city.

No injuries were reported and the cause of the blaze was not immediately determined. L. G. Hooker, owner of the firm, had no immediate estimate of damage.

Electric power was disrupted when the blaze affected three primary electric circuits.

Re-Enlistments Down

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Computers are not always right.

Reshuffling by Defense Secretary McNamara has in some cases cut the over-all readiness of Army, National Guard and other reserve units to meet a national emergency.

Even McNamara's elite Selected Reserve Force units are finding the re-enlistment rate of their critical personnel has dropped. They're finding it difficult to attract and hold sufficient junior officers beyond their required service.

These units are being forced to fill in with less experienced junior officers, noncommissioned officers and men.

Especially short are helicopter and winged aircraft pilots and mechanics, radar technicians and engineer and signal officers and NCOs.

In the Army's aviation reserve sections the situation is intensified as the reserve units lose skilled aviation men to the airlines.

Overall, the number of untrained reservists in Army units including the National Guard is expected to grow by 38,000 this year.

This unhappy news follows almost a year of intensive work by hundreds of thousands of reservists, many of whom believed they were getting ready to be called into active duty for Viet Nam or as a backstop for some other world crisis.

The equipment picture is not good though the special Selected Reserve Force units, by and large, have more than they had a year ago.

In many cases the Selected Reserve Force units have the equipment because other Army units, which would also be needed in time of emergency, have been cannibalized.

One officer reports that four artillery battalions were virtually stripped of skilled manpower and equipment to put one battalion in good condition.

This all means that most Army, National Guard and other reserve units—those not in the selected reserve—are much worse off than a year ago.

Many selected reserve forces are short of essential equipment—range finders, radar, hospital equipment, helicopters, fixed-wing aircraft, signal equipment generators.

Officers Named By Conservation Dept. To U.P.

LANSING — Twenty-seven new conservation officers have gone on regular field duty in various parts of Michigan.

The men assumed assignments this week to fill vacancies in the Department's law enforcement ranks after graduating from officer recruit school at Higgins Lake.

In donning the traditional olive green uniforms of conservation officers, they bring the Department's law force close to its authorized strength of 167 men.

Pegging assignments to existing vacancies, the Department has sent eight new officers to the Upper Peninsula, including:

James A. Dabb; Marenisco; Robert H. Ball, Crystal Falls; Wayne K. Kangas, Iron River; Donald L. Gilmore, Norway; Wesley J. LaFayette, Stephentown; Philip E. Rynanaka, Tignary; Arnold A. Kero, Rock; and Michael J. Sheehy, Newberry.

Considerable amounts of the equipment they have is old or obsolete. Some report 15-year-old trucks and signal equipment so old they cannot communicate satisfactorily with regular army units in joint maneuvers.

In some cases the selected forces units report the equipment they receive is in such bad state of repair it is unusable without extended stays in the shops.

Some is so old that breakdowns are frequent in training. If these units were called into battle with this equipment it would break down so rapidly under field conditions as to be unusable.

Worst of all is the shortage of spare parts.

Now these units are necessary or they're not. If they're necessary—in this day and age—they're needed quickly in an emergency. A paper unit without sufficient skilled junior officers, NCOs and enlisted men and arms and equipment won't meet our needs—regardless of the devotion of its members.

The Doctor Says:
Relief For Emphysema

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

(Last of two related articles)
As the prevalence of emphysema has increased, so have the efforts of the medical profession to help those who have this disease. The treatment is not a single procedure but rather a program that includes drugs, postural drainage, oxygen and breathing exercises.

Although pure oxygen in moderation is necessary in the treatment of some persons with a severe form of the disease, it should not be used routinely. Persons with mild emphysema have been benefited by brief exposure to air at one-half the usual atmospheric pressure (a simulated altitude of 13,000 feet).

Special breathing exercises are usually prescribed to aid in forcing the trapped air out of the lungs. The victim must lie on his back and push out his abdomen by forcing his diaphragm downward during deep inhalation (1½ seconds), then pulling his abdomen in during slow expiration (3 seconds). A metronome set for a beat of one-half second is the best way to control the timing. Placing a sandbag weighing 15 to 30 pounds on the abdomen during this exercise increases the benefit. Two half-hour sessions a day are recommended.

None of the treatments outlined will cure emphysema but they will make the victim's life much more endurable. For prevention, support a movement for cleaner air in your city, don't start smoking, or if you smoke, give it up and see that every respiratory infection is treated promptly and not allowed to become chronic.

Q—Where I live there is still some question as to whether you should use boracic acid to rinse babies' diapers or as an eyewash. Also, should one take baking soda for an acid stomach or mineral oil for constipation?

A—Styles change and when the reasons are good, the changes are for the better. The reason boracic acid, a very weak antiseptic at best, is no longer recommended for rinsing babies' diapers is that this substance is a poison and can be absorbed through the skin. As an eyewash it is far inferior to a one-quarter per cent solution of zinc sulfate.

Soda bicarbonate will give quick relief from water brash but has the disadvantage that it stimulates the stomach to produce more acid. Aluminum hydroxide tablets are easier to take and more effective. Mineral oil interferes with digestion. Scrupulous care to control if you take too much.

Lawyer Foreign Policy Only Substitute Problem

"ALL RISKS" INSURANCE

More and more often, insurance policies on a home or its contents are using that reassuring phrase "all risks." Instead of naming the separate perils you are protected against, the "fire" or "theft" or "windstorm," the policy will wrap them all up in those two short words.

How much protection does that give you? Does it mean you are covered for absolutely everything that can possibly happen to your property?

No, it does not. For one thing, the policy itself may spell out exceptions. But even if it doesn't, the law will read certain exceptions into the coverage anyhow.

One such exception is a loss which you yourself cause, either on purpose or by extreme negligence. Take two cases:

1) a terrible-tempered farmer flogged his horse to death; 2) a home owner remained oblivious to the obvious while his dog soiled the carpet in more than 75 different places.

Both men claimed insurance under an "all risks" policy. But neither one collected. The courts reasoned that such insurance was never intended to reimburse a person for the consequences of his own flagrant misconduct.

Another exception is a loss caused by "inherent vice"—that is, the tendency of an article to go bad all by itself. Butter spoils, iron rusts, draperies fade, paint peels—not because of any outside peril, but because of the product's own inherent nature. This, too, is the kind of loss not within the usual scope of insurance protection.

Still, in spite of these exceptions, an "all risks" policy generally does give you a lot broader coverage than a traditional "named peril" policy. If there is a loss, it is not up to you to point to a clause that covers it. On the contrary, you collect—unless the insurance company can point to an explicit or implied exception that rules it out. Thus:

In another case of carpet damage, a woman accidentally marred the surface by the too vigorous application of a cleaning fluid. And a court granted her claim for insurance, because it found no flagrant misconduct, no inherent vice, no relevant exceptions in the policy.

This was the kind of a loss, said the court, that an average person might reasonably have in mind when he buys "all risks" insurance.

Dear Ann Landers: Something in your column got to me. It was your reply to the woman who was born when her mother was 45. You said, "Stop complaining. Wouldn't you rather have been born late than never?"

I am the father of five children. Live in the suburbs. Good job. No debts. Union. Nice kids. Yet I'm having trouble hanging on to my sanity.

My associates point to me as the perfect example of a man in complete control of himself. The outward appearance of serenity is a fraud. I'm actually fighting to keep out of the booby hatch.

I would rather that I hadn't been born. Why? Because our foreign policy is insane and I'm afraid we are going to blow ourselves off the face of the earth. Moreover, I'm sorry I gave life to five children who will be the unwitting victims of something they cannot control.

If I'm wrong tell me. It will be further evidence that I am sick and maladjusted—as my wife once suggested.—E.B.S.
Dear E.B.S.: I'm not going to say you are wrong. But I am going to suggest that you spend some money on a psychiatrist. When a person's private face is so different from the face he presents to the world he's in serious trouble.

D. H. Lawrence wrote, "Poor Richard Lovatt worried himself to death struggling with the problem of himself and calling it Australia." You are calling it "our insane foreign policy," not Australia, but you and Poor Richard have much in common.

I agree the state of the world is something less than peachy-keen, but this is not what is making you miserable. You are attempting to mask your personal anxieties by substituting an impersonal cause for worry. It is easier for an individual to blame the bomb than to admit that he is at war with himself.

Helen Voisine Golf Champion

Helen Voisine dethroned Kate LeBrasseur as champion of the Indian Lake Golf and Country Club women's tournament Wednesday with a 1-up victory in the finals.

The champion got off to a fast start by going 2 up at the end of four holes but Miss Voisine rallied to lead by one hole at the turn. It was a tight match the rest of the way to the final green.

Apathy Is Problem For November Vote

"Apathy is the biggest problem facing Republican candidates in November," Charles H. Varnum stated Tuesday night in a speech for the Chippewa County Republican convention in Sault Ste. Marie.

Varnum, keynote speaker, is the candidate for the 107th district representative post in the state Legislature. It embraces Luce and portions of Chippewa, Delta and Schoolcraft counties.

"We must not look to George Romney to carry us in November. He needs our support," Varnum said.

"Republican success in November will come at the individual precinct level. Victory can not be assumed—it must be assured," he said.

Varnum gave details of his door-to-door campaign, indicated his gains in the primary, and related a conversation with the governor, in which he said the Mackinac bridge tolls continue to be an economic barrier to the economy of the district.

Varnum returns today to the U.P. Fair and will be present for governor's day activities.

County Will Ask For Mill Nov. 8

The Schoolcraft Board of Supervisors Tuesday night voted to ask for one mill for two years in the election Nov. 8. The additional revenue would be used for county operating expense and debt payment. The possibility of having some revenue available for entrance road, terminal building and other improvements at the airport was cited. The state has indicated it will provide $15,000 toward the project. A similar sum would be needed from the county.

Buenos Aires, Argentina, is the second largest city south of the equator.

Seek County Plan Study

The Schoolcraft Board of Supervisors Tuesday night authorized the county planning commission to ask bids for a comprehensive plan, such as that prepared for the city, with costs not to exceed $20,000 and county share, not more than $5,000. The possibility of township participation in cost will be considered.

Lindsley Frenette, Agner Dehlin and Floyd Sample were named to a committee to consider appointments to a county zoning committee.

The board accepted the bid of Schnurer Excavators for a snowplow no longer usable, for $175. Authorization was given to purchase a wind velocity meter for the airport, at estimated cost of $100.

A property description was received on land which might be suitable for an old people's home, in the hospital area, and was referred to the prosecuting attorney. Appraisal, financial responsibility, legal proprieties in conveyance and other factors are to be considered, it was indicated.

Auto Imports Hit A Record

DETROIT (AP)—Import car dealers did a record-breaking business in the first six months of this year as they topped the 300,000 sales mark for the first time.

The first half registration total of 304,275 broke the old mark of 291,772 set in the January-June period of 1959. That year marked the current high for import sales as U. S. buyers bought 614,131 foreign-made cars.

The import market showed many of the same characteristics of the domestic market, notably a drop in comparative sales figures for April and May this time, with a strengthening in June demand.

Volkswagen maintained its pace as perennial leader in the import sales race as it sold 108,116 cars in the American market, compared with 170,652 in the opening six months of 1965.

VW faltered a bit in June as its share of the import market dropped slightly to 60.59 per cent.

General Motors German-made Opel provided one of the surprises as it moved from fifth spot last year into the runner-up spot to VW in the first half of 1966.

North Escanaba Beach Bus Had 70 Average Load

An average of nearly 70 youngsters per day made use of the North Escanaba bus-to-beach program this summer, according to a report by H. George Nelson, program chairman.

Total attendance for 23 days of the five-week program was 1,605. Highest total for one day was 121, while the lowest on any single day was 15.

The program was conducted under the direction of the Social Ministry Committee of Christ The King Lutheran church with the cooperation of the Escanaba Area schools. Buses made two trips to and from the beach daily except for one legal holiday and one cancellation because of cold weather from July 5 through Aug. 5. "We wish to thank all organizations, unions, business places, and private individuals for the generous support of this program," Nelson said. "The parents send their heartfelt thanks."

Ford To Build Plant In Romeo

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. announced plans Wednesday to build a plant in nearby Romeo for final assembly of its line of industrial tractors and equipment.

The plant, to be located on a 160-acre site, will employ some 200 persons, Ford said. The firm's proving grounds are located west of Romeo. Cost was not revealed. The plant is expected to be completed next spring.

The announcement said the plant will include offices for headquarters of the tractor division's equipment operations, now located in suburban Birmingham.

Ford now builds industrial tractors at its suburban Highland Park plant. A Ford spokesman said Highland Park would still build the tractors and ship them to Romeo for final assembly as total tractor-equipment units.

Fat Steers Bring 33.4¢

The U.P. State Fair's fat stock auction—an effort to stimulate beef industry education in the Upper Peninsula—averaged a price of 33.45 cents a pound for its 31 animals Wednesday night.

That's pretty good; the price last year was 37.43 cents and it was the highest in the 13 years that the fair has held the auction. The lowest price was in 1953 when the average was 30.07 cents, said Grey Knaus of Cornell, superintendent of the fair's beef animal activities.

Auctioneer Walter Heise of Oconto, Wis., hammered down the fat stock—mostly Herefords, with a few Angus and crosses—for a total of $8,894.19 and an average of $286.90 per animal. They averaged 858 pounds and varied from 685 to 1080 and the price range in bidding was from 28 cents to 50 cents for the grand champion steer of the fair, exhibited by Susan Bowers of Stephenson and purchased by the Rickaby IGA Supermarket at Stephenson, which paid $490 for the Hereford.

Reserve Price $417
The reserve champion, shown by Allan Peterson of Carney, brought $33.50 cents and was bought for $417.00 by the Drees Livestock Co. of Peshtigo, Wis. The young feeders who competed in the show reported rates of gain per day for the animals of 1.17 to 2.5 pounds. The grand champion's rate was 1.72 pounds per day and he went to the fair at 1,000 pounds and sold at $80. The reserve champion's gain was 1.59 pounds per day and he sold at $80 pounds.

Escanaba Livestock Auction handled the sale without charge. Menominee County contributed 15 animals, Delta 11, Marquette 3.

More, Better
Dairy Products

The number of entries is up and their quality is better in the Dairy Products department of the U.P. State Fair this year, it is reported by James Russell of Harrison, Mich., department superintendent.

Harold Lauer, the judge of the dairy products, says the class of aged cheese here is "as good as I have ever judged anywhere." Lauer is with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Wisconsin.

The scores prove Lauer's point: Of a possible 100 Palestine Cheese Co. at Stephenson scored 99.5 a near-perfect aged cheese. Harold Gruenstern is the cheesemaker.

Swift and Co. in aged cheese scored 98.5 and Rapid River Cheese Co. placed third with 96.5.

With fresh cheese the top score was made by the Copper Country Dairy of Dollar Bay with 97; Palestine was second with 86, and Rudyard Cheese Co. scored 93.

In the butter section, A. & P. Tea Co. placed first with 98, Copper Country Dairy was second with 97, and the Ontonagon Valley Co-op, Bruce's Crossing scored 96.

Jilberta Dairy of Calumet was tops with cottage cheese. Bancroft Dairy of Manistique was second and Ontonagon Valley Co-op third.

Ted Goetz of Gladstone and Don Pera of Kingsford, both state milk inspectors, have charge of one of the essentials at the fairsgrounds—the milk house.

Here the milk produced by the cows entered at the fair is brought for processing—a considerable volume of about 3,300 pounds daily. The milk is sold and the producers are paid for each pound of milk brought to the milk house.

Atlanta Police Arrest Anti-War Demonstrators

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Police took seven anti-Viet Nam war demonstrators into custody today after a brief, noisy struggle in front of an Army induction center.

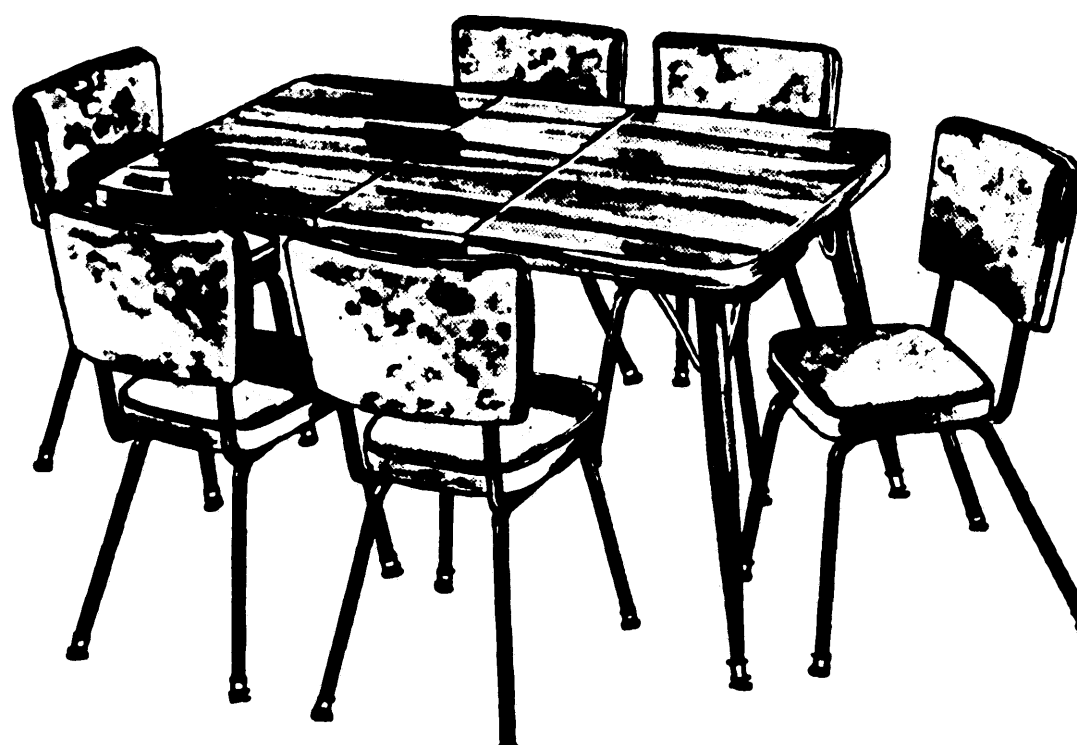

It was the second successive day of protests at the center. The demonstrators, shouting "black power", restrained themselves from entering the building, tearing several overnight bags carried by the youths. They wrestled with police and attempted to force their way into 12th Army headquarters. A newsman at the scene said one demonstrator ripped off a policeman's badge when officers blocked the group's way inside. No charges were filed immediately.

Helen Hayes Is To Go On Road

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I thought perhaps that the theater had changed and I was passe. How nice it is to have one's faith restored."

Helen Hayes was explaining why at age 64 she has put aside thoughts of retirement to sign on for a year with the APA Repertory Company. She has been appearing in two plays, "School for Scandal" and "Right You Are" at the Huntington Hartford Theater and will add a Walt Whitman adaptation as she travels to Ann Arbor, Mich., Toronto and back to the company's home base in New York.

Why, after 60 years of triumphs in the theater, would Miss Hayes take on such an exacting assignment?

Her main reason is altruistic: to help the APA, "which offers the best hope for the success of repertory in America." The experience has already reaped personal rewards for her. She admitted a sense of defeatism about the American theater and her place in it.

"The whole concept of the new theater is something I could neither understand nor enjoy," she remarked at her rented Beverly Hills home. "It reflects the spirit that pervades everything today—education, art, music. Permissiveness is the key to everything."

"I began to feel that I was out of step perhaps in the process of aging. I was unable to adjust to new ways. So I decided I had better try the new system myself. In doing so I managed to muck up a number of performances."

The vehicle was "The Glass Menagerie," which Miss Hayes had performed to acclaim in London and New York. When she was engaged for a State Department tour of Europe in the play, the director was a member of the new self-expression school.

"He told me, 'It doesn't matter how you do something, it's what you do.' That went against all my training. I had always been taught that how you did something was of utmost importance; there are 50 different ways of saying yes, each with a different meaning."

"But I went along with him. And I was miserable. I was confused and helpless. I had no idea of what I was doing. Finally in Helsinki I cracked. I called for a rehearsal of the company so we could start all over again and figure out what we were doing and why."

Ontonagon And Chippewa Named Emergency Areas

LANSING (AP)—Nine more Michigan counties were certified as emergency feed areas by the U. S. Agriculture Department, Gov. George Romney said here.

All are in drought areas. The action permits soil bank and other diverted lands to be used for grazing and harvesting of hay.

Farmers must return payments they had earned for retiring the land under government programs.

The nine counties are Alpena, Alpena, Chippewa, Clare, Lake, Oscoda, Presque Isle, Benzie and Ontonagon. Twelve other counties had been approved earlier.

Herb Now Rides Gold Avalanche

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "I don't seem able to get caught up with success," said Herb Alpert. "I'm not used to it."

"My goal isn't to make money — it's to find out what life is."

But at 29, Herb, whose dark sideburns and matador build make him look like the late Rudolph Valentino, is riding a golden avalanche.

The slender trumpeter and his famed Tijuana Brass Band will gross, he figures, an estimated $32 million this year as the result of breaking the sound barrier.

The sound barrier they broke was the sound of rock 'n' roll which has dominated the music world for years. They created a rollicking new sound, a sound in which Alpert wedded Dixieland jazz and the spirited rhythms of Mexico's strolling mariachi bands.

Herb, who has been blowing the trumpet since he was 8, first experimented with the new sound in a Los Angeles garage in 1962. But it was a full two years before the sound really caught the national fancy.

Happy Sound

"There have been a lot of new musical sounds, and you can never in advance really put your finger on one that the public will take to," said Herb.

Arntzen & Co., Architects, 820 South 16th Street, Escanaba, Michigan.

Miss Delta County Is Chosen '66 Fair Queen

By JANET MARTIN

Lovely Miss Cherie Ann Maskart, Miss Delta County of Gladstone, was chosen 1966 Upper Peninsula State Fair Queen during ceremonies Wednesday night.

The charming new queen, a statuesque blue-eyed brunette, received her crown from Miss Judith Tanguay, last year's queen, Miss Fun-O-Rama from Menominee.

The new queen, in tears, exclaimed, "I'm so happy I don't know what to say. I just can't believe it." Waiting in the wings for Miss Maskart were her family and many happy fans.

The first runner-up was Miss Constance Lee Hill, the Potato Queen from Ishpeming. She is 5' 6" tall with brown hair and brown eyes. Miss Fun-O-Rama, Miss Mary Lynn Gafner of Menominee, a brown-eyed brunette was the second runner-up.

Cherie Ann Maskart was born May 22, 1947 in Escanaba and she attended the All Saints Grade School in Gladstone.

She is a 1965 graduate of Holy Name High School and during her high school years she was vice-president of the Senior class and active in the choral department. She will return to Bay de Noc Community College this fall to complete her sophomore year where she is majoring in speech therapy. Miss Maskart is a member of the student government at the college.

Enjoys Sports

She enjoys any and all sports but lists her favorites as snow skiing and tennis. She also plays the piano and enjoys all types of music.

She hopes some day to work as a Peace Corps volunteer.

Cherie Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rene Maskart of 559 N. Ninth St., Gladstone and is one of four children. She has an older brother and two younger sisters. She is 19 years old and is 5' 8" tall.

Miss Maskart competed with a field of 18 other girls from all over the Upper Peninsula for her title. The competition consisted of a brief speech at the Queen's Luncheon at the Sherman Hotel, personal interviews with the judges and evening gown competition at the banquet held at Marco's Starlight Room.

At the luncheon each girl told of her family activities, her future plans and expressed her delight in contesting for the title.

In the afternoon the contestants donned costumes representing their individual themes and were interviewed by the M.C. of the afternoon grandstand show, Bill Hart.

Theme Costume

Miss Maskart appeared in a pale blue floor-length gown with a plywood map of Delta County which she wore over her shoulders attached by straps. The map depicted the outstanding resources and recreational activities of Delta County and as the bottom of the map showed Bay de Noc, Cherie wore a blue gown to coincide with this.

Miss Hill appeared in burlap costume consisting of a short ruffled skirt and blouse with blue trim. Miss Gafner wore a white sailor dress and she carried a grouping of the Menominee marina flags depicting the American States and the Canadian Provinces.

At the banquet, at which time the girls appeared in full-length evening gowns, they demonstrated the charm and poise that qualified them to be queens from their respective areas. Following the banquet the girls went on to the Fair to await the judge's decision and the coronation.

Assisting at the coronation were the two pages, Jill Burroughs of Gladstone and Marcia White of Ontonagon. Escorting the queens were Brent Baum and Tom Schmeltzer of Escanaba.

Queen Cherie will make her first appearance at the Fair this afternoon. Friday she will be a guest at the governor's luncheon at the House of Ludington and make appearances at the Fair in the afternoon and also be present for the even grandstand show.

Queen Cherie Ann and Mrs. Leney Clairmont, director of the pageant, will attend the Michigan State Fair in Detroit early in September.

Judges for the Queen's contest were Mr. and Mrs. William L. White of Ontonagon and Mrs. Ward Alquist of Iron Mountain.

Perpetual Vows Taken By Sister Barbara Jean

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:
Some breads come in plastic bags with a little piece of covered wire wrapped around one end to keep the bag closed. These bags are simply wonderful to take along whenever you go visiting, to put baby's wet or soiled diapers into, using the wire to close the bag. Simply shake out the bread crumbs, fold the bag and put the wire around it so both bag and wire will be together and ready when you want to use them.

Sister Barbara Jean, the former Sally Ann Butler of Escanaba, took perpetual vows at the Franciscan Mother House, Order of Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity, at Manitowoc, Wis., on Monday, Aug. 15. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. William E. Butler of Escanaba. Sister Barbara Jean attended and graduated from St. Anne's School and from Holy Name High School in 1959. She was a member of St. Anne's Parish. She entered Holy Family Convent at Manitowoc in August of 1959.

Attending the perpetual vow taking were her parents and nonna, Minn.; and her sister, family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frazer and family, Arthur J. Harvey and Fr. Paul D'Antonio, Escanaba; Mr. and Mrs. William A. Butler, Milwaukee; Brother Charles Butler, Christian Brothers Scholastica, Wisconsin.

Sister Barbara Jean

Dear Heloise:
Here's a hint for handicapped persons. I made a back washer by shredding six old nylon stockings and placing them in the MIDDLE of another stocking, and sewing along both sides of the wad of inserted nylon to hold it in place. I hold one end of the hose in each hand when using it to wash my back, pulling it back and forth as I do when drying my back with a towel.

Dear Heloise:
What to do with your corsage or boutonniere after the party or prom?

Put it on a small platter, saucer or pickle dish (I use the oval dish from a gravy boat), add a little water and place in the refrigerator. When you set the table for lunch and dinner the next day, use it as a centerpiece, then put back in the refrigerator until the next meal. Usually the flowers will keep for a whole week this way. This is a nice way to enjoy your flowers so much longer and to remember that special occasion.

Briefly Told

Wilfred Clements, Hannahville was sentenced to 15 days in the Menominee County jail Wednesday by Judge Ray Peterson of Spalding after he pleaded guilty to a State Police charge of driving while license revoked. Troopers also ticketed Charles Heath, 322 N. 14th St., Escanaba, speeding; Fred Benette, Wilson, speeding; Louis Brunelle, Marquette, no operator's license and violation of the basic speed law; Barbara Beck, Rte. 1, Gladstone, speeding; and Theodore Dugener, 1801 3rd Ave. N., Escanaba, disregarded red light.

SOME ROCK this turned out to be. What looked like a large rock on land being cleared for a General Motors proving ground at Milford, Mich., turned out to be merely the exposed portion of a huge glacial boulder. It took two bulldozers to move the 40-ton, 35-foot circumference boulder from the building site.

Drys Convention To Be On Tuesday

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Prohibition party has scheduled a nominating convention Tuesday to select candidates for the general election in November. Officials also announced plans for a court test of the state election law dealing with the petitioning requirements to attain a place on the ballot. Prohibition party nominees have not appeared on the printed ballot in Michigan since 1960. They have been entered as sticker candidates. E. Harold Munn Sr., the party's 1964 presidential candidate, will be the keynote speaker at the convention, which will be held at the YWCA in Lansing.

Demand Exceeds Lendable Funds

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Banks are charging the highest interest on loans since the 1920s. How can they raise their prime — or lowest — rate four times since December 1964 and get away with it? Because the demand for loans in a sizzling economy is booming faster than the supply of lendable funds. And customers are willing to pay the new 6 per cent prime rate, or up to 6½ and 7 per cent in most instances.

The banks will be getting a handsomer return on loans. But they hasten to point out that they are paying more interest for the deposits from which they can lend. Theoretically, commercial banks can borrow from the Federal Reserve Bank at the official 4½ per cent discount rate and then lend that money to the select few — their best and most credit-worthy customers — for 6 per cent. That unusually big spread would seem, at first glance, to provide a very neat profit indeed. And the profit would be higher for the majority of borrowers who pay more than 6 per cent.

Actually the Fed keeps a very close watch on borrowing by member banks at its discount windows. Loans are for very short periods, usually to take care of a daily routine or some emergency. The Fed's policing rules forbid making such big profits on money borrowed from it. Because the Fed frowns on such borrowings, banks have been borrowing from each other instead. They have lately paid as high as 5½ per cent for federal funds — the surplus reserve one bank may have temporarily at the Fed — and on a short-term basis, usually just overnight.

Banks raising their prime rate this week are saying the increase might dampen some of the big demand for loans, and thus help to keep the economy from overheating. But many of their big customers say that hiking interest rates usually has little effect. For one thing, interest charges are deductible before taxes. For another, business firms are borrowing because they want to expand their plant or activities with an eye on making larger profits themselves, and are willing to pay the cost.

Would-be borrowers are usually able to find a lender — if they'll pay the price of the loan. This goes for consumer loans as well as business loans. The one place where a real pinch has been felt is in long-term home mortgages.

The supply of money has increased in recent months, but the volume of loans has gone up even faster. And this law of supply and demand has let the lending institutions raise interest charges. It works the same way as with a commodity. To raise more funds to lend at higher rates, the banks and other financial institutions have been sweetening the inducements to investors by offering higher interest returns on their savings. And these high yields have lured many from the stock market, and from one competing financial institution to another.

What will higher borrowing costs do to business profits? Before-tax earnings will feel the added expense. But optimistic business borrowers expect that sales, and maybe prices and profits, will rise, too.

4-H Dairy Class Events Close Livestock Judging

Livestock judging at the U. P. State Fair moved toward the end today after completion of all remaining open class competitions Wednesday.

4-H club animals took the judging rings this morning as one of several featured activities on 4-H Day.

Judging was completed yesterday in open class beef, hogs, guernsey, sheep and swine divisions.

Philbeck Bros. Farms of Menominee, operated by Gordon and John Philbeck, continued their annual top showing at the fair by sweeping five of six championships in the large holstein cattle class.

Judge Kent Mattson awarded Grand, Senior and Junior championship honors to the Philbeck brothers in the bull division and also grand and senior championships for their holstein cows. Henry Wender of Iron Mountain prevented a clean sweep of top honors for the Menominee farm by winning the junior championship in the holstein division.

Menominee County had the top county herd with Dickinson County second, Alger third and Iron fourth.

In the holstein grade group, Diane Kossel of Carney had grand and senior champions, while Susan Supa of Norway won junior champion honors.

The guernsey division also was nearly a Menominee County show, except for the county herd competition where the Delta County herd was a surprise winner.

"We didn't think we had a chance," said Bertha Lee Johnson, Rte. 1, Escanaba. "Menominee County won just about everything all day long."

Elmer Johnson, Bertha's father, took grand, senior and junior championships for his guernsey bulls, but after that it was all Menominee County as Marvin Klein of Wallace won senior and grand championship ribbons for his purebred females and Sheldon Klein, also of Wallace, took junior champion honors.

In the guernsey grade group, Marvin Klein repeated with grand and senior champions. Alex Cottle of Pickford won junior champion honors.

Hereford Judges Menominee County placed second in the county herd competition and Chippewa County was third.

Open class beef competition was dominated by Vincent Peterson of Carney and the Ray Hereford Farms of Menominee. Peterson had senior, grand and junior champion bulls, while Ray Hereford Farms grabbed reserve champion honors.

Ray Hereford Farms also walked off with the purebred female heretofore top spots with junior and grand championships. Don Cottle of Pickford had senior and reserve championships.

Menominee County topped the county herd competition with Chippewa second, Delta third and Iron fourth. Earl Branschreier's Hereford Farm of Menominee took grand and junior championships, while Duane Ollila, Skandia, had senior and reserve champions.

George Hibbard, Iron River, was awarded the grand championship rosette for his female grade angus cattle, while Robert Willis, also of Iron River, won reserve champion honors in a small entry.

Results from other competitions follow

Sheep

The Wellman family of Bark River dominated competition with four members each sweeping a class. Leon Wellman took all places with his registered shropshires. Wilberna swept honors with registered hampshires. Lana took the Colombian class and Couette won cross bred competition.

Four boys from Rock and Perkins—Paul McNutt, John Blumaker, Rudy and Gary Brunschgraber—won grade Suffolk and grade Suffolk ewe lamb competition, while Herman Brunschgraber, Rock, won top honors with his grade Suffolk ewe and grade Suffolk yearling ewe.

"We had the largest sheep entry in recent years," said Henry Wylie, assistant superintendent. "This is also the first year we have had a 4-H Sheep Club show in the premium book."

Clubs represented in the sheep show were from Delta, Houghton and Marquette counties.

Swine

Phil and Paul McNutt of Perkins entered a total of five animals in the competition with Phil winning lightweight barrow honors and Paul the grand championship with his duroc jersey bull.

Wylie said the farm market class hogs were the first entered at the U. P. fair in many years. He attributed lack of entries to stiff State Health Dept. regulations for fair showing.

Change Shown In 4-H Exhibits

The constantly changing character of the 4-H Club program is reflected in the general exhibits at the U. P. State Fair.

Emphasis this year centers around art and rocks, although work in all divisions is of high quality.

Total number of exhibits is "about the same" as last year. "Some areas have dropped, while others have come up," said one official. "Rock collections have gained about 30."

The rock exhibits also include a rocks and minerals jewelry presentation by the Mid-County 4-H Club of Delta County.

This is the first year textile paintings have been entered and—along with oil work—Schoolcraft County club members have made a strong showing.

Judging Finished

Featured textile works include a striking pirate ship by Gerard Jenerou, a tropical scene by Dan Klarich and a pair of bluejays by Crystal Berglund, all of Manistique. The art exhibit also includes top notch oil paintings by Sue Painter of Houghton County and Dietman Kremby and Sharon Chartier, both of Manistique.

Judging in all divisions was completed Wednesday by R. H. Kaven and E. W. Granskog in boys divisions and Mrs. Elmer Perron and Mrs. Chester Good in girls sections.

One of the top knitting exhibits is a ski sweater, cap and mitten set in white with red and blue trim by 15-year-old Mary Schaff of Gwinn. She is a second-year knitter and took about two months to complete the outfit.

Table Features

Clothing exhibit features top garments from all 15 counties in the Upper Peninsula which were chosen for U. P. Fair display at spring achievement programs.

Donald Dominic of Ensign entered a hand-crafted card table with inlaid checker board of light and dark wood in the woodworking section.

Also featured in the general 4-H exhibits are displays on food preservation, flowers, conservation, electricity, automotive mechanics, gun safety and leathercraft.

Manistique Man Is Tech Grad

HOUGHTON—Michigan Technological University will graduate 32 men from two more Manpower Development and Training Act programs Friday at the Ford Forestry Center in Alberta.

Graduating from the draftsmen's course are: Edward E. Bessler, Newberry; Robert J. Carstensen, Manistique; Rick R. LaFleur, Bark River; Dennis C. Nantell, Newberry.

Graduating with honors from the head sawyer's class are: Charles Eastman, East Stoneham, Maine; James S. Hawke, Milladore, Wis.; Howard H. Hawley, Goodman, Wis.; and Jay R. Tousey, Suring, Wis.

Head sawyer graduates include: Gerald B. Purple, Grand Marais.

Queen Of Pine

ATLANTA (AP)—Linda K. Christia, 18, of Alpena, was chosen Queen of the Pine at the Atlanta 4-H Fair Wednesday night. Earlier this summer, she was runner-up in the Cherry Festival in Traverse City.

Bark River Asks Labor Board Aid In School Talks

BARK RIVER — Negotiations between the Bark River-Harris Education Association and the Bark River-Harris Board of Education over a master contract for teachers for the 1966-67 school year reached an impasse Wednesday night.

Both groups agreed to call in the Michigan Labor Mediation Board in an effort to reach a settlement before school opens Monday, Aug. 29. The groups have been meeting without success since March.

"The two groups were unable to reach an agreement on salaries, insurance, arbitration and various fringe benefits," a statement released by the Education Association today said.

"The Association's latest salary offer ranged from $5,280 to $7,875 in 11 steps for a teacher with a bachelor's degree. The Board's counter proposal was $5,200 to $7,280 in 11 steps for a bachelor's degree. The total cost difference between the two schedules is between five and six thousand dollars," the statement continued.

Budget Adopted

"The scheduled opening of the Bark River-Harris school district is Aug. 29. As of today, contracts have not been issued because of the failure of the groups to reach an agreement. The Bark River-Harris district employs 28 teachers and none of them have signed to return," the statement said.

Neither the Board of Education nor Supt. Richard Hendra had any comment on the statement or status of negotiations.

In action by the Board of Education Monday, a budget of $291,984 was adopted.

The budget is the largest ever for the general operation of the district. To meet the income requirements, the full county allocated and extra voted millage of 11.0 mills for operation must be levied, plus added Michigan State Aid benefits expected to increase by almost $20,000, according to Hendra.

Largest raises in expenditures were in the areas of instruction for the Elementary and High Schools.

Board members commented on the problem of rising labor and material costs, and are very concerned with making "ends meet" with the present extra voted millage of 3.5 mills. "We must seriously consider the possibility of curtailing programs or finding more operating funds from additional millage if we are to continue to provide a quality education for our students next year," continued the Board.

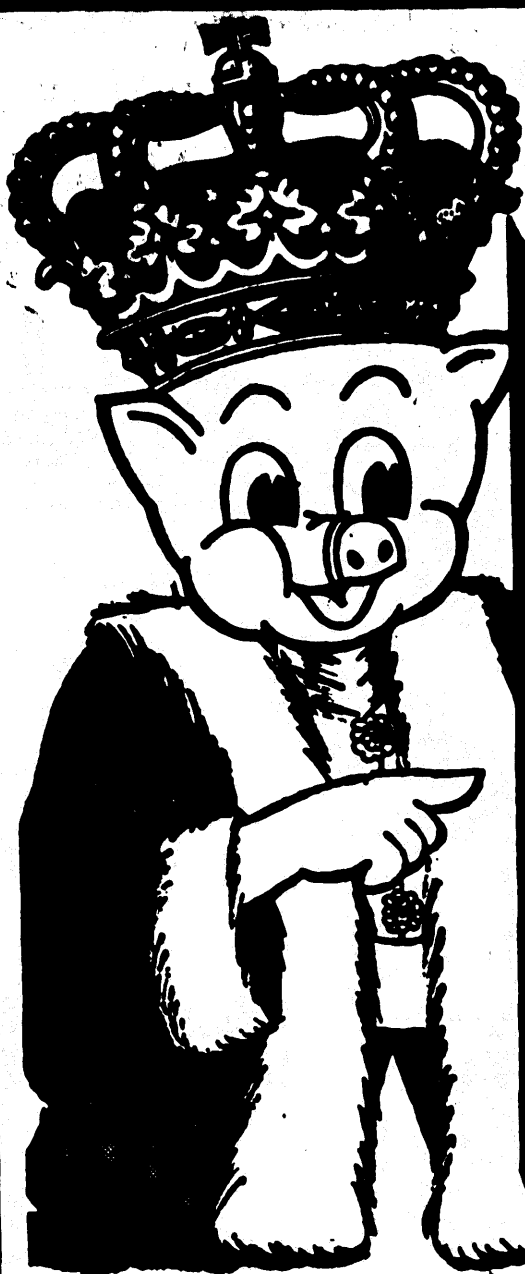

Driver Hired In other action, the Board approved a leave of absence for Mrs. Richard Potvin, a hot lunch cook in the district, contracting with Bancroft Dairy to supply the district's milk for 66-67 and hiring of Wayne Hooker as a bus driver. The band program and bus routes for the year were also discussed.

Hendra reported Bark River-Harris, like many other districts in the State, is suffering from the acute teacher shortage this year. He appealed to any qualified persons in the area who might be interested in teaching positions to make their services known to the school district.

Coch Bill Lucier will open his fall football drills at Michigan Tech Thursday, Sept. 1, with an eight game schedule starting Sept. 17 at downtown Alma. Lucier has invited 66 varsity candidates, including 21 lettermen from last year's NIC championship team, to the practice sessions.

The Huskie varsity roster is sprinkled with 10 former Upper Peninsula high school stars. On that list are Bill Bennett, Dave Johnson and Ed Telford of Ironwood, John Benaglio, Stan Pakula and Dave Penkevich of Stambaugh, Paul Butkovich of Houghton, Mike Campana of Crystal Falls, Tom Csmarich of Ontonagon, Jay Dishnow of Iron Mountain, Mike Zimmerman and Jim Spuhler of Soo, Paul Dougaville of Stenhenson, Bill Janeschek of Kingsford, Dane Dominiel of Iron River, Dave Paris of Menominee, Jim Parker of Hancock, Jerry Pertunnen of Marquette and Boze Sandberg of L'Anse.

Cliff Johnson, veteran Chatham chucker, notched four straight mound victories as his V&B Bar team captured the Marquette District Class C tournament championship this week. Chatham defeated Marquette Remillard's, 6-3, in the title game.

Thompson Woody's Bar boasts the best record in Upper Peninsula softball this season. Winner of three invitational tournaments in addition to the Class A district at Marquette this week, Woody's will carry an imposing 39-2 record into the Class A finals at Crystal Falls this weekend. The only teams able to stop Woody's this season were Marquette Gling's and Green Bay 616 Club.

One Escanaba team will be in action in the Upper Peninsula Class C softball tournament at Iron Mountain tonight when Michigan Hotel takes on Iron Mountain No. 3 at 7. Escanaba Teamsters, the Escanaba district champion, will play its first tournament game at noon Saturday.

Dave Douglas, starting guard on the Iron Mountain High School team last fall, has been invited to fall football drills at Wisconsin State University by Coach Merts Morterell. The Yellowjackets open their 1964 season Sept. 17 against Stout. Other U.P. athletes on the squad will be Brian Landretti and Frank Verbois of Ironwood.

Tough Guy Earns Job

By The Associated Press
They said Frank Emanuel was tough and he's turned out to be too tough even for Wahoo McDaniel, a successful professional wrestler when he's not playing pro football.

Emanuel, the All-America linebacker from Tennessee who got a reported $200,000 to sign with Miami's new American Football League team, has grappled with McDaniel, the former New York Jet, for the Dolphins' middle linebacker spot.

Wednesday, Miami Coach George Wilson said that Emanuel would start at middle linebacker in Saturday's exhibition game against the Jets at Jacksonville, Fla. McDaniel will move to the right side.

New Golf Champs Crowned In Women's Tournaments

Mary Sue Boyce, switching from text books to tee shots this summer, captured the Escanaba Country Club women's golf championship Wednesday by trimming former titlist Marie Wicklander, 5 and 3, in the finals.

A 21 year old Northern Michigan University student, Miss Boyce played a steady game against her veteran foe, keeping the pressure on through the match and making few mistakes. She toured the front nine in 46 strokes and took the turn with a three hole lead. She never relinquished her advantage over Mrs. Wicklander who wore the club crown in 1962 and 1963.

Miss Boyce speared the title on her second try. Last year she reached the finals only to bow to Sally Fontaine in a 20 hole marathon.

In a battle that went to the 17th hole, Carolyn Nelson defeated defending champion Elaine Fairchild 2-1 for the Highland women's club championship. This marked the seventh time since 1955 that Mrs. Nelson has held the Highland women's crown. Mrs. Fairchild held the crown in 1964 and 1965.

Mrs. Fairchild won the first hole, but then a par for Mrs. Nelson on the third hole evened the match. Carolyn then matched par on No. 5 to go one up. Elaine fought back to take the seventh and eighth holes to go into the back nine 1-up.

Mrs. Nelson evened the match once more on No. 11, and went 1-up on the 13th. Mrs. Fairchild again evened the match on No. 14, but Carolyn then won on the 16th and 17th holes to win the match 2-1.

Wilson Notches Rare Victory Over Yankees

DETROIT (AP) — After watching Earl Wilson hand-cuff the Yankees on four hits Wednesday night, it's a little hard to believe that he'd only beaten them twice previously in his career.

"I had pitched some good games against them when I was with Boston but they've always been a tough team for me," Wilson said after besting the Yankees 4-2 for his fifth straight triumph.

Wilson, who is 3-10 against New York, didn't allow a hit until Jake Gibbs singled with two out in the fourth.

Singles by Bobby Richardson and Gibbs, and an error by Jim Northrup, gave the Yankees their first run in the seventh and Tom Tresh hit his 19th homer in the ninth inning to close out the scoring.

The victory brought Wilson's overall record to 14-9 and to 9-4 since joining the Tigers. His earned run average with the Tigers dropped to 2.69, by far the best on the club.

Al Kaline, who hadn't hit a home run since July 10, hit his 22nd of the year in the fourth inning with Norm Cash on base. Cash had singled for the first Detroit hit as New York's Jim Bouton matched Wilson almost pitch for pitch.

The Tigers chased Bouton in the eighth inning when they added their final two runs with the help of a couple of Yankee errors and two singles.

Mays Feels Great, Sandy Feels Pain

By The Associated Press
Willie felt great; Sandy felt pain.

Mays' feeling came in the fourth inning Wednesday when he hit a home run that triggered San Francisco to a 4-3 victory over St. Louis.

Koufax's came in the second inning of Los Angeles' 5-1 loss to Cincinnati when he hurt his arthritic left elbow.

The home run was a historic one. It was the 555th of Mays' career and made him the second greatest homer hitter and the greatest right-handed homer hitter of all time.

The blast, on a 3-2 pitch from Ray Washburn, sailed over the right field fence at Candlestick Park and vaulted Mays ahead of Jimmy Fox on the all-time list.

"I feel real great about it," Mays said afterward. "This is the first time anyone has achieved this in so short a time. The rest of those guys had 20 years, and I've had only 15."

Koufax was seeking his 20th victory Wednesday night but instead wound up with a sore elbow. He hurt it in the second inning when he struck out the side but didn't leave until the fifth.

"It's nothing different from what has happened to him before," said Dr. Robert Kerlan, Dodger team physician. "The elbow hurt him all season, but usually the pain is between pitching assignments."

"It's possible that Sandy will be able to warm up on the sidelines two days from now and then take his usual starting turn if the elbow is not swollen."

Koufax, whose next scheduled turn would be Sunday, received a cortisone injection in the elbow, then placed it in a bucket of ice — the usual ice treatment he gets after a game.

In other National League games, New York edged Pittsburgh, cutting the Pirates' lead to one-half game over San Francisco; Chicago trimmed Philadelphia 5-3 in 10 innings and Atlanta humiliated Houston 6-1.

Mays' homer, his 30th of the season, cut the Cardinals' lead to 3-1. The Giants then tied it in the eighth on run-scoring singles by Tito Fuentes and Willie Mc-

Covey and won it in the ninth on last four runs with the first pinch-hit grand slam homer in Mets' history.

Ron Hunt then won it for New York with a two-out, two-run single in the sixth.

Ernie Banks snapped a 2-2 tie for Chicago with a three-run homer in the 10th. Rich Allen sent the game into overtime with a homer in the eighth.

Atlanta pushed past Houston with five runs in the sixth inning. Ray Cotsy singled home two of the runs and scored another on Denis Menke's single.

Elsewhere in the American League, Detroit beat New York 4-2, Minnesota clipped California 5-3, Cleveland bumped Washington 5-3, and Chicago took a pair from Kansas City 4-2 and 5-1.

In the National League, New York knocked off Pittsburgh 8-7, San Francisco edged St. Louis 4-3, Chicago took Philadelphia 5-3 in 10 innings, Atlanta bounced Houston 6-1 and Cincinnati beat Los Angeles 5-1.

Bauer, who confesses to having a pennant-clinching party all planned, said, "Too many things can happen in this game to become over-confident, but it's a lot better feeling being where we are than chasing other clubs."

Al Kaline hit his first homer since the All-Star break and Earl Wilson stopped the Yankees on four hits in the Tigers' victory. It was Kaline's 22nd home run of the year.

Don Mincher hit a two-run single in the eighth sparking a three-run Minnesota rally. The Angels had gone ahead in the top of the inning when Jay Johnstone tripled and scored on Zoilo Versalles' wide throw to the plate on a grounder by Jim Fregosi.

Leon Wagner clubbed a three-run homer in the seventh inning for Cleveland and Dick Radatz struck out six men in two innings of relief. Rocky Colavito hit his 26th homer.

Bill Skowron homered with two men on for Chicago in the opening game and Tom Agee and John Romano hit them out in the nightcap.

Oriole Blitz Stuns Bosox

By The Associated Press
Having had enough of winning with the more mundane weapons — hitting, pitching, homers, things like that — the Baltimore Orioles have come across a method that puts a little fun back in the game — the sneak attack.

Wednesday for the second night running, Baltimore scored five runs in the ninth inning, snatching the game away from the disbelieving Boston Red Sox.

By the time the blitz had ended, Baltimore had an 8-4 victory. Tuesday, the Birds came from behind with five in the ninth to win 6-4 and on Monday they tied it in the ninth and went on to win 4-2 in 11.

"I don't know who can stop them," moaned Boston Manager Billy Herman, "but I know we can't in the ninth inning."

Baltimore Manager Hank Bauer, who is now beginning to admit that his team might just win the pennant at that, said, "We've pulled out a lot of games in the eighth and ninth. I don't know exactly how many, but there have been a lot."

Wednesday's attack started with consecutive singles by Russ Snyder and Brooks and Frank Robinson, filling the bases. A walk to Boog Powell (the safest way to pitch to him these days) forced in one run and a single by Paul Blair accounted for another.

Bob Johnson squeezed Brooks home and Stu Miller (a relief pitcher yet) knocked in the last two with a single.

Elsewhere in the American League, Detroit beat New York 4-2, Minnesota clipped California 5-3, Cleveland bumped Washington 5-3, and Chicago took a pair from Kansas City 4-2 and 5-1.

Rookies Fight In Lion Camp

DETROIT (AP) — A pair of mammoth Detroit Lions rookies got into a fist fight at the National Football League team's suburban Cranbrook training camp Tuesday.

Frank (Ox) Pennie, a 6-5, 250-pound defensive tackle from Florida State, exchanged blows with offensive guard Bob Kowalkowski, from Virginia. Kowalkowski is 6-3, and 245 pounds.

"When your own people play each other, fights like that are commonplace," was coach Harry Gilmer's only comment.

Kowalkowski, who just returned from two weeks training with a National Guard unit, was named by Gilmer to start in an exhibition against the New York Giants at New Haven, Conn., Sunday.

"He's starting because I haven't had a chance to look at him," said Gilmer, adding Nick Pietrosante would start at fullback in place of rookie Tom Nowatzke, who started the first two exhibitions. Pietrosante is a native of Ansonia, just outside New Haven.

Meanwhile, the Lions announced that former offensive line coach Aldo Forte, 48, has been hired as a special scout. His duties will include weekend scouting trips for upcoming opponents, with emphasis on the Western Division teams.

Forte, a 15-year veteran of the Lions organization, resigned at the end of the 1965 season to devote more time to private business.

He played with the Chicago Bears in the 1940s.

The Lions cut their squad to 52 players Wednesday with the release of center Bill Cottrell, tackle Bruce Yates and tackle Roger Kramer.

Cottrell, a rookie free agent from Delaware Valley (Pa.) College, and Yates, a 10th round draft choice from Auburn, had been with the team since the beginning of camp.

Kramer, a free agent from Kalamazoo (Mich.) College, was cut earlier this summer by the Minnesota Vikings. He requested a tryout with the Lions last weekend.

Veteran Racer Dies In Crash

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Veteran race car driver Ken Miles is dead after the violent crash of a Ford test car at Riverside Raceway.

The 47-year-old driver, who had been enjoying his best season since he started racing in his native England in 1938, died instantly Wednesday from severe head injuries, a track official said.

According to witnesses, the sports car he was driving plunged off a high bank near the final turn of the nine-turn course, rolled end-over-end and landed in the infield. Miles was thrown from the car, which burst into flames and was totally destroyed.

Officials estimated the machine, a prototype called the Formula J car, approached the turn near the end of the mile-long back straightaway at 176 miles an hour.

Miles, a slender and wiry physical fitness devotee, recently said of the dangers in auto racing:

"If you are going to indulge in the sport, that's one of the things you have to face... and accept."

The veteran driver won two of the year's three major endurance sports car races — the Daytona 24-hour, when he teamed with Lloyd Ruby, and the Sebring 12-hour.

Fall Is Fatal

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Michael Garrison, 43, producer of the television series "Wild, Wild West," died Wednesday of injuries suffered Sunday in a fall at his home.

Weather, Labor Shortage Hurt

Forest Cut Misses Record

The amount of timber cut on the Hiawatha National Forest in the fiscal past year was 35.2 million board feet. Sherwood Trotter, forest supervisor, said "this is about the same amount of wood that was cut the previous year. We had anticipated a record year because at mid-point we had a record of 20 million board feet cut, but poor weather during the second half year reduced production and even important was the labor situation. Woodworkers were hard to get, even with increased prices for cut-wood."
